Commodore's Comments

Winter 2015 has settled upon us. The Christmas season has passed; snow has finally stuck to the ground. The Packers are in the playoffs and it is time for all boaters to start thinking about boating. Pier bidding is just a short 62 days away, the 1st Saturday of March. The question is am I happy with my current slip or am I going to move. We have had several boat sales and membership changes. Bidding will again have suspense. Come down and enjoy the proceedings.

We have some changes to the Board. We have a new Vice Commodore Dan Moshinski and Rear Commodore Tom Hoffa. We also have a new board member Bryan Gahan who is also our Fleet Captain. When you see these members welcome them aboard.

I would like to thank the outgoing former Vice Commodore, Jan Ruggles who has served this board and club many years with prospective and a critical eye. Her work on our club's insurances has saved us thousands of dollars. Thanks Jan for your stewardship.

I want to thank Tom Hoffa and Patty Williams, Greg and Karen Puetz, Jon Haag, the Klamrowski's and Schroeder's for their sponsorship of Packers Sunday's this past December. The food was greatly enjoyed by all.

Our installation dinner is on January 24th held down at the club; tickets are available at the bar. Tickets are limited so do not wait until the last minute. We will be swearing in the officers and handing out the SMYC member of the year award.

South Milwaukee Yacht Club is a member driven club and all members need to participate in making things happen. There are various events and projects in the coming year that need you to make them happen. Make 2015 a year of "AWESOME" at the yacht club.

Happy New Year and see you down at the club.

John

SMYC

Winter Rendezvous To Port Washington

Saturday, February 28, 2015

11:00am—7:00pm

$20 per person

Avoid the winter doldrums! Join us for a day in Port Washington!!!

Details: Bus Trip to Port Washington for all SMYCers and their guests. Poker Run will take place during the day with stops @ Schooner's Pub, Port Washington Yacht Club and several other establishments in the area. We only have room for 56 people — so sign up right away. Your $20 covers the bus ride, munchies on the bus, and LOTS OF FUN!!! Alcohol is allowed on the bus, but no glass bottles.

Please arrive at SMYC by 11:00am. Bus will leave parking lot @ 11:30am. Departure from Port @ 7pm to return back to SMYC. This will give participants a chance to eat and enjoy the day in Port.

There is a sign-up sheet behind the bar at the Club. Payment is required when signing up.

If you have any questions, please contact Katy Steinhaus @ 414.588.1101 or KIKI Kilman @ 414.418.5971.

Membership Update

Paul Mozejewski submitted an application for Full Membership in the middle of December. Paul has been an Associate Member at SMYC for several months, but has decided he wants to be more involved with the Club and our members. He is in hot pursuit of the vessel of his dreams and has received many suggestions from our Club's bar patrons.

Jeff Janda is shown here with his partner Sherry Borgs. Jeff submitted an application to become an Associate Member at the Club in the middle of December. He is no stranger to many SMYCers as he helped a number of our fishermen this past summer.

Paul & Debbie Smith have moved their membership status to Associate. Their boat left the harbor at the end of this year's boating season. Debbie volunteered to stay on as our "Sunshine" Lady who is in charge of arranging for flowers to be gifted to members on the mend or families of recently lost members. Thank you Debbie.

Charlie & Carol Baltutis have also requested to move from Regular to Associate membership status. They believe they will be spending more time and money on their first grandchild expected in a month or two. Parents of the expected little bundle of joy are members, Seth and Julie Yust. Charlie and Carol have volunteered to stay on as till readers. Thank you Charlie and Carol.
